.) There's one thing I've always loved and it's a good bootleg and Oasis has more than there's fair share of them. In this part of the guide, I'm going to put a number of my own personal favorite gigs that the band played from 1994 to 1999. I first discovered several Oasis recordings at CD and Record Fairs by trading cassettes with other fans in the post via music magazines. When I finally got the internet around 2000 and discovered several Oasis and bootleg forums I was like a kid in a nice-hearted shop. I was completely blown away with literally hundreds of hours of footage and sound that existed of the band. Incredibly Oasis' REMARKABLE back catalogue includes just one official live album Familiar To Millions, something that's hard to believe gives the band's enormous popularity. February 6th 1994 Gleneagles Scotland It was the first Oasis gig ever filmed professionally, it was recorded in a room full of music executives at a Sony Music conference in Scotland. The band recently signed their first record deal and had yet to release any music. Unlike the track listing on the band's Cigarette and Alcohol single and on The Masterplan compilation album, I was recorded the Walrus not at the Glasgow Cathouse (as stated) but at the soundcheck of this event. As it was incorporated into an empty room at 10 p.m., the noise from the crowd believes it or not is taken from a Faces bootleg album! Bring it up down and live Forever from this gig appeared on the Definitely Maybe DVD that was released in 2004. Setlist: I'm the Walrus (audiocheck, no video), Shakermaker, Bring It On Down, Digsy's Dinner, Live Forever, Cigarettes and Alcohol and Supersonic. October 15th 1994 Metro ChicagoUSA For me it's the definitive gig of the Definitely Maybe era. From the start of Rock 'N' Roll Star to the end of I'm the Walrus the band gives those fans lucky enough to attend a truly remarkable achievement. Up In The Sky and I Am The Walrus from this gig appeared on the Definitely Maybe DVD that was released in 2004. Setlist: Rock 'N' Roll Star, Columbia, Disappeared, Digsy's Dinner, Shakermaker, Live Forever, Bring It Down, Up in the Air, Slide Away, Cigarettes and Alcohol, Married With Kids, Supersonic and I'm The Walrus. December 11th 1994Civic Hall Wolverhampton England Highlights of this gig were originally broadcast on the Evening Session on BBC Radio 1 and for many years (pre internet) it was probably my most played and beloved recording of the band. Setlist: Columbia, Digsy's dinner, Shakermaker, brings it down. up in the air, slides away, cigarettes and alcohol, married kids, sad song, whatever and I'm the Walrus. November 4th 1995 Earls Court London England in November 1995 1995 the two biggest ever indoor gigs at the time in Europe, at a specially elaborate Earls Court in London. The gigs were so loud that earth tremors were reported in Kensington and Chelsea. Supersonic, Hello, Morning Glory, Cigarettes &amp; Alcohol and Champagne Supernova from this gig would appear on the '... There and then' VHS released in 1996. Setlist: The Swamp Song, Acquisition, Supersonic, Hello, Some Might Say, Shakermaker, Roll With It, Round Is Way/Up In The Sky, Cigarettes &amp;; Alcohol, Live Forever, Champagne Supernova, Wonderwall, Cast No Shadow, Morning Glory, Don't Look Back in Anger, Whatever/Octopus's Garden and I'm the Walrus. March 19th 1996 Cardiff International ArenaCardiffWales Often described as the Holy Graaal of Oasis bootlegs it has been rumoured for years that this gig has been planned to be officially released for the 1996 Christmas market. It's one of the best gigs I've seen the band in Cardiff, the recording is a perfectly mixed and mastered soundboard recording. Setlist: The swamp song, acquisition, supersonic, hello, some might say, roll with it, shakermaker, round is gone/up in the air, morning glory, cigarettes and alcohol, champagne Supernova, Whatever/Octopus's Garden, Wonderwall, Slide Away, Don't Look Back in Anger, Live Forever and I'm the Walrus. April 27, 1996 Maine Road Manchester England This is one of my most watched/listened to bootlegs of the band, I chose the first night if I went to it. Quite a bit of the set of the second night appeared in the There and Then Release. The crowd, setlist and more importantly the band were absolutely phenomenal, it was just at these gigs that Cum On Feel The Noise appeared in the bands setlist. The song was played on Jools Holland and Top Of The Pops with Noel on lead singers. Setlist: The swamp song, acquisition, supersonic, hello, some might say, roll with it, morning glory, round is gone, cigarettes and alcohol, champagne Supernova, whatever, cast no shadow, Wonderwall, The Masterplan, Don't Look Back in Anger, live forever, I'm the Walrus and Cum on feeling the noise. This concert needs no launch and I think it's the one concert most officially wants to be released. Easily the biggest gig the band ever played and one of their most iconic, 250,000 fans, including myself over two nights, saw the band at the height of their popularity. Setlist: The swamp song, Columbia, Acquire, Supersonic, Hello, Some Might Say, Roll With It, Slide Away, Morning Glory, Round Is Cone/Up in the Air, Cigarettes and alcohol, whatever/Octopus's garden, cast no shade, Wonderwall. The Master Plan, Don't Look Back in Anger, My Big Mouth, It's Gettin' Better (Man!!) 23rd August 1996 Royal Albert Hall London England a few weeks after playing Knebworth, the band was due to be one of the most eagerly anticipated MTV Unplugged sessions of the decade About an hour before the owed on stage at the Royal Festival Liam informed the other members of orchestra he would not perform because of a sore throat. Noel took to the stage and played Liam decided to sit in the audience, chopping his own band throughout the show. Setlist: Hello, Some might say, live forever, listen, the Master Plan, don't look back in anger, talk tonight, morning glory, round is gone/up in the air, throw no shade, whatever and miracle wall. On 27 November 1997brabanthallen Den Bosch Netherlands I had to choose between this or the G-Mex concert in Manchester that took place on the same tour and I chose to put it as my choice. Is this a better gig? Significantly different set list? No, but it should be listened to and appreciated. Setlist: Be here now, stay young, stand by me, Supersonic, some might say, roll with it, D'You know what I mean?, Magic Pie, Don't Look Back in Anger, Wonderwall, Live Forever, It's Gettin' Better (Man!!), Around the World, Fading In-Out, Champagne Supernova and Acquired. The point DublinIreland Noel Gallagher was forced to play two of the three sold-out gigs on this leg of the Be Here Now tour after Liam pulled out with a throat infection. Incredibly twenty fans made an offer for a refund for the second and third nights of a three-night stay in Dublin. It was the only time the girl was played in the dirty shirt live. Setlist: Be here now, my big mouth, some might say, roll with it, Magic Pie, don't look back in anger, stand by me, D'You know what I mean?, Whatever /all the young dudes, don't leave, fade in-out, cigarettes and alcohol, the girl in the dirty shirt, live forever and Wonderwall. January 17th 1998 Rosemont Horizon Chicago USA Another major bootleg of the band I played to death over the years, highlights of the set were originally broadcast on local radio. The band is all on great shape, Noel's acoustic set is magnificent and includes one of the best acoustic versions of Slide Way I've ever heard. A full fan recording of the gig can be watched here. Setlist: Be here now, stand by me, Supersonic, Roll With It, D'You know what I mean?, cigarettes and alcohol, don't leave, talk tonight, to be someone (didn't we have a nice time) (The Jam cover), slide away, don't look back in anger, Wonderwall, Live forever, It's Gettin' Better (Man!!) and Champagne Supernova. February 20th 1998 Nippon Budokan Tokyo Japan I think it was one of the first bootlegs DVDs I got from the group and I still look at it regularly because it's absolutely phenomenal. Playing three sold-out nights at the venue on this leg of the tour, I've always been surprised at how many Oasis was loved in Japan. They will need to continuously add more and more dates to tours because of them being sold in record time. Setlist: Be here now, Stand With Me, Supersonic. Roll with it, D'You know what I mean? Cigarettes Alcohol (Snippet whole Lotta Love by Led Zeppelin as outro), Don't Leave, help!, setting up sun (The Chemical Brothers deck), deck), In-Out, don't look back in anger, miracle wall, live forever, it's Gettin' Better (Man!!), Champagne Supernova and Acquire. March 18th 1998Estadio Luna Park Buenos Aires Argentina Amazingly the band has never played a note in South America until this tour and the dates in Chile, Argentina and Brazil have all been sold out in record time. By now, the group had established themselves as one of the greatest and best bands in the word. During the tour promoting the Be Here Now the band sold out gigs in the UK and Ireland, Europe, North America, Asia, Oceania. This is the final full pro-shot concert that features founding members Bonehead and Guigys. Setlist: Be Here Now, Stand By Me, Supersonic, Roll With It, D'You Know What I Mean?, Cigarettes &amp;&amp; Alcohol (Snippet whole Lotta Love by Led Zeppelin as outro), Don't Leave, Setting Sun (The Chemical Brothers Covers), Faded In-Out, Don't look back in anger, Wonderwall, Live Forever, It's Gettin' Better (Man!!), Champagne Supernova, Acquisition and I'm the 3rd Of December 1999 First Union Center Philadelphia USA On December 3rd, 1999, Oasis made their first appearance alongside new members Gem Archer and Andy Bell at the First Union Center in Philadelphia, the group had a brief set. Bonehead and Guigys left the group during the recording of Standing On The Shoulder of Giants, other acts on the bill were Beck, Foo Fighters, Moby and more. Setlist: Cigarettes &amp; Alcohol/Whole Lotta Love, Supersonic, Wonderwall, Champagne Supernova and Helter Skelter. The band was ready to take on the new millennium with a new album Standing on the Shoulder of Giants and the new line-up settled in. Stay tuned for part two. Two.
